Texas Lawyer quoted Elizabeth Mack on her appointment as Dallas Office Managing Partner. Mack, who also Chairs Locke Lord's Environmental – Real Estate and Corporate Section, commended Locke Lord for giving her a "tremendous platform" for her practice, which focuses on brownfield redevelopment, environmental compliance, and environmental litigation.

Mack also commented on the significance of Locke Lord's three Texas offices – among six offices Firmwide – being led by women, noting the Firm's reliance on women leaders shows its commitment to diversity and inclusion. "Women have never been second–class citizens" at Locke Lord, she said.

Mack is also a member of Locke Lord's Board of Directors, Firm Finance Committee and Women's Initiative Committee. In addition, she is a past Chair and current member of the Board of Directors of Texas Appleseed and serves on the Executive Committee of the Harvard Alumni Real Estate Board.
