

Sponsored Events | May 26, 2021

The Attorney-Client Privilege: Getting Help and Protecting Advice – An ACC Northeast Webinar

RELATED PROFESSIONALS

Allison O'Neil | Brian C. Devine | Kaitlin J. Levine-Brown

With increasing government oversight of corporations under the new administration and the complex business issues arising out of the pandemic, in-house counsel and corporate leadership will need confidential legal advice from lawyers and non-legal professionals.

In this webinar, Locke Lord's Allison O'Neil, along with Emulate's Larry Weiss, will address:

- When the attorney-client privilege applies
- How to safeguard that privilege
- The best means of seeking, protecting and communicating attorney-client privileged material within U.S. companies and to cross-border affiliates

Panelists will discuss how to maintain the privilege in interactions with:

- In-house counsel
- Business advisors
- Accountants
- Public relations consultants

CLE

This program is pending approval for 1.0 hour of CLE credit.

When registering, please specify the state from which you would like to receive CLE credit.

For more information or to register, contact Kayla Gentile.