The Pros and Cons of Generative AI in the Workplace: The Matrix

Hiring to Firing Podcast

SPEAKERS

Tracey E. Diamond | Evan Gibbs | Alison A. Grounds

For better or worse, generative AI is everywhere. Many companies are asking themselves: "Do we run from it or embrace it? What role can generative AI play in the workplace, and what should we do to stay ahead of the curve?"

Partners Tracey Diamond and Evan Gibbs hosted their first ever video recording of Hiring to Firing in front of a live audience at Troutman Pepper's Inaugural Private Equity Perspectives Summit. Watch the video or listen in as they discussed the movie The Matrix with Alison Grounds, founder and managing partner of Troutman Pepper eMerge and the firm's Generative Al Task Force leader. The team chatted about the risks and benefits of generative Al and guardrails your organization should consider putting in place.
