In the latest episode of Unauthorized Access, host Sadia Mirza welcomes Kaitlin Clemens, the newest member of Troutman Pepper's Incidents + Investigations team. Kaitlin shares her journey into incident response and cybersecurity, transitioning from plaintiff-side litigation to crisis management in the cybersecurity space. She opens up about the challenges and rewards of her role, shedding light on the critical importance of having a supportive team.

Kaitlin also offers her insights on balancing a demanding career with personal life, especially as a mother. At one point, Sadia and Kaitlin become so engrossed in their conversation that they forget they are recording, giving listeners a rare opportunity to eavesdrop on their everyday office banter.

Curious to know what makes these IR attorneys enjoy their jobs so much? Tune in to hear their true and authentic selves.
