February 8 – 9, 2024

Troutman Pepper Partner, Brett Hubler, will be speaking on a panel for the NCBA Business Law Section Program.

On day one, speakers will discuss important, practical developments in common business transactions. Day-two speakers provide presentations on significant legal updates ranging from the Corporate Transparency Act to how recent judicial decisions impact corporate DEI programs. Day two also features the annual case law update and includes an hour of technology and ethics/professional responsibility credit and an hour of substance abuse/mental health credit.

Brett's panel, "It's All About the Benjamins: Bridging the Gap in Valuations and Beyond," will discuss the latest on different mechanisms for finding compromises on price and liability regimes in the mergers and acquisitions space.
