Please join Consumer Financial Services Partner Dave Gettings and his colleagues Ethan Ostroff, Brooke Conkle, and Jon Kenney as they discuss the Third Circuit's recent decision in the Bibbs case, particularly the Third Circuit's treatment of "pay status" allegations and what we can expect to see going forward.

Ethan Ostroff advises companies on compliance issues and interactions with regulators concerning the Fair Credit Reporting Act, while also defending furnishers, users, and specialty consumer reporting agencies in individual and class-action lawsuits under the Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA).

Brooke Conkle focuses her practice on complex litigation and federal consumer protection statutes, including the FCRA and Regulation V, the Equal Credit Opportunity Act (ECOA) and Regulation B, the Telephone Consumer Protection Act (TCPA), and UDAP laws.

Jon Kenney represents national clients in federal and state courts and routinely defends financial services companies in litigation under various federal statutes and regulations, including the FCRA, the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act (FDCPA), the TCPA, and the Truth in Lending Act (TILA) and Regulation Z.
