Mike Whitton, a partner with Troutman Pepper, is quoted in the article “Time for Offense” published in the November/December 2022 issue of Golf Inc. The article quotes Mike during his panel at the Golf Inc.’s 2022 Strategies Summit on October 12, 2022, at Kiawah Island, SC.

“Pre-COVID, everything was down; clubs were on the defensive. And now we are in a very healthy environment, [even if] faced with a recession,” said Mike Whitton, golf practice group leader for Troutman Pepper and panel moderator.

“What have we learned pre- and post-COVID? What can we do differently? And do the same difficulties that underpinned the pre-COVID years still exist?”

“In bad times, spend money. It differentiates you from those who don’t,” Whitton said. “People want to join what’s successful.”
