Evan Gibbs was quoted in the December 7, 2023 ABA Journal article, “‘Tis the Season for Holiday Parties, Hijinks, Harassment and Lawsuits.”

Evan Gibbs, an Atlanta-based partner specializing in employment defense at Troutman Pepper Hamilton Sanders, says he’s surprised how often he reads or hears about an office party that has gotten out of control.

“You have to put some thought into an event like a holiday party, especially if you are going to unleash a bunch of people onto an open bar,” says Gibbs.

“Some people don’t celebrate Christmas or the holidays, and some people just don’t like parties,” says Gibbs.
