Tobacco and Nicotine Law and Regulation

Virtual

SPEAKERS

Michael B. Jordan

Michael Jordan will join the “Product Compliance” panel at the upcoming Food & Drug Law Institute’s (FDLI) Introduction to Tobacco and Nicotine Law and Regulation course on October 8. The panel will cover topics such as labeling and warning requirements, product registration and ingredient submission, user fees and tobacco taxation, marketing and advertising limitations, retailer requirements, and product standards.

FDLI’s Introduction to Tobacco and Nicotine Law and Regulation is a one-day event that will offer a comprehensive overview of tobacco and nicotine product law and regulation, focusing on FDA rules, compliance, enforcement, marketing, litigation, and industry trends.
