Heather Heath Ryan, a partner in Troutman Pepper Locke's Tax and Benefits Practice Group, was quoted in the September 12, 2025 article, "Troutman Adds Robinson Bradshaw Benefits Pro," that appeared in Law360, Law360 Pulse, and Law360 Tax Authority.

"Troutman has the high-performance attorney resources and bench strength I was looking for to continue to provide my clients with business-focused advice, responsiveness, and agility," Ryan said. "It was also important to me to find a cultural fit, and I knew immediately after meeting many team members that Troutman's collegial and collaborative approach to this practice was going to be a great fit. I am passionate about my practice and my colleagues share that energy and enthusiasm about this ever-changing area of law."
