Marisa Young, a partner in Troutman Pepper Locke’s Insurance + Reinsurance Litigation Group, was featured and quoted in the May 15, 2025 Law360 article, “Troutman Adds Transactional Insurance Partner From McDermott.”

Marisa Young, who has always worked on transactions, said she was excited to join the firm. “I had done a couple of deals across from the Troutman team, and I think that the insurance group is doing really interesting and innovative transactions, particularly in the middle market,” Young said. She found the firm’s deep bench on the regulatory side appealing and was keen to join because she thinks Troutman is “poised for growth.”

“There were transactional components and there was an acquisitional component, we also formed anew insurer and created a joint venture,” she said.
