Finalist Selection Highlights Troutman eMerge’s Metrics-Driven Legal Advocacy and Technical eDiscovery Work With Zurich North America

ATLANTA – Troutman eMerge has been recognized as a finalist at The American Lawyer 2025 Industry Awards in the Best Client–Law Firm Team category. The shortlist honors client–law firm collaborations that deliver measurable, mutual value–aligning goals, coordinating seamlessly, and translating legal work into business results. The firm was recognized for its collaboration with long-term client, Zurich North America, where the team has consistently advanced the client’s business through legal advocacy, disciplined matter management, technology-enabled workflows, and outcomes-focused delivery.

“Being a finalist for Best Client–Law Firm Team is a meaningful validation of how we work with clients to achieve measurable business results, not just legal wins,” said Alison Grounds, founder and managing partner of Troutman eMerge. “This category recognizes client–firm relationships that deliver standout outcomes through trust, coordination, innovation, and measurable impact. It signals that our collaboration model is performing at the very top of the market.”

The American Lawyer Industry Awards honor the most exceptional lawyers, law firms, legal departments, and organizations in the country. The prestigious awards serve not only as a platform to honor these achievements but also as a means to inspire excellence and innovation within the legal industry.
