Akshay Belani, a partner in Troutman Pepper's Corporate Practice Group, is featured and quoted in the Law360 article, "Troutman Adds Derivatives Expertise With Ex-Stroock Atty."

"Because of the nature of my practice, I work well with practitioners who work in the funds space, in the finance space and in the commodities and energy space, and Troutman has really well-developed practices in each of those areas," Belani told Law360 on Wednesday. "So it was a good practice fit for me."
