CHARLOTTE, N.C. – Troutman Pepper client American Tire Distributors, Inc. (ATD) recently completed the sale of its Canadian subsidiary, National Tire Distributors, Inc. (NTD), to Groupe Touchette Inc. (Groupe Touchette). Read a company press release about the strategic transaction.

ATD will continue supporting NTD and Groupe Touchette through its new commercial relationship, under which ATD will supply the combined company with its proprietary Hercules and Ironman brand tires and make its advanced analytics software and productivity-enabling tools available to Groupe Touchette's network.

"It is always a pleasure to work with long-time client American Tire Distributors, and we are proud to have assisted in this important value-creating transaction involving the carveout of its Canadian operations," said Troutman Pepper Partner Chad Warpula.

ATD is one of the largest independent suppliers of tires to the replacement tire market. It operates more than 115 distribution centers serving approximately 80,000 customers across the United States.

The Troutman Pepper team advising ATD was led by Chad Warpula and included Mason Bayler, David Carter, and Chelsea MacArthur (Corporate) and Howard Goldberg and Joel Post (Tax).
