The Troutman Pepper team advising SPC was led by Partners Todd Boylan and Matt Greenberg (Corporate) and included Taylor Bartholomew, Jenny Ji, and Samantha Peruto (Corporate); Howard Goldberg and Christopher Stock (Tax & Benefits); and Kayla Weldon and Justin Wood (Finance & Restructuring).

U.S. Compliance was founded in 1988 to address the compliance requirements facing facility operators amidst expanding workplace safety (OSHA) and environmental (EPA) regulations. It delivers comprehensive and site-specific services to EHS compliance decision makers within clients of all sizes – including owners and executives, HR professionals, plant managers and corporate EHS managers – to effectively drive their bottom-line growth while saving lives, preventing injuries, and abiding by environmental standards.

Consistently recognized as a top-tier national practice, Troutman Pepper's corporate attorneys regularly handle multimillion- and multibillion-dollar transactions. Core areas of service include capital markets transactions and other significant domestic and cross-border transactions, mergers and acquisitions, corporate governance, securities laws compliance, and corporate finance. The firm has particular expertise in the private equity and private fund services space, advising clients on matters from fund formation to investments and exit transactions.
