Troutman Pepper Alumni Ethics and Professionalism CLE

Zoom

Tuesday, February 21 • 12:00 – 3:00 p.m. ET

Lawyers are trained to be enterprising – we’re expected to use state-of-the-art technology in our practice...to utilize the latest law and zealously advocate for our clients...basically, to be bold and cutting edge. But there is a fine line between being an assertive lawyer, and pushing the ethical boundaries too far. In this program, Stuart Teicher, Esq. (the “CLE Performer”) will explore the limits of pushing the envelope: whether “zealous” is the dirtiest word in the ethics code...the dangers of using trendy technologies...and some important professionalism concerns with being a forward-thinking lawyer. Topics include:

- Is “Zealous” The Dirtiest Word in Ethics;
- Technology and Ethics: Are Siri and Alexa Out to Get You;
- Can a Lawyer? A Professionalism Question.

2 Ethics credits and 1 Professionalism credit offered.*
