WASHINGTON – A group of Troutman Pepper attorneys have been named to the 2020 Capital Pro Bono Honor Roll by the D.C. Access to Justice Commission and the D.C. Bar Pro Bono Center.

The Capital Pro Bono Honor Roll recognizes attorneys who have made substantial and valuable legal contributions by completing at least 50 hours of pro bono services for qualified clients. Partners earning the Honors designation volunteer 50 to 99 hours and those qualifying for High Honors complete 100 or more hours.

Troutman Pepper attorneys recognized with High Honors include Viktoriia De Las Casas, Ronni Fuchs, Christopher Healy, Jeremy Heep, Elizabeth McCormick, Saverio Romeo, Gita Sankano, and Misha Tseytlin.

Troutman Pepper attorneys recognized with Honors include Brandon Almond, Pamela Belleman, Elizabeth Briones, Michael DePrince, Christopher Jones, Gerar Mazarakis, Armeen Mistry, John Morrissett, Mashal Shah, and S. R. Sidarth.

The D.C. Access to Justice Commission seeks to improve the ability of low- and moderate-income residents to access the civil justice system. The D.C. Bar Pro Bono Center provides volunteer attorneys with resources and trainings to help provide pro bono legal services. These organizations partner with the D.C. Courts to recognize attorneys with an ethical commitment and principled belief in equal access to justice.

Each year, Troutman Pepper attorneys dedicate thousands of pro bono hours in support of nonprofits, military veterans, children, the wrongfully accused, and so many more. Learn more at troutman.com/pro-bono.
