CHARLOTTE/RALEIGH, N.C. – A multi-disciplinary group of Troutman Pepper attorneys has been named to the 2021 North Carolina Pro Bono Honor Society by the North Carolina Pro Bono Resource Center. The honor society recognizes attorneys who have made substantial and valuable legal contributions to the state of North Carolina by providing 50 or more hours of pro bono legal services.

Attorneys recognized include Elizabeth Holt Andrews, Jesse Sharp, Michael C. Peretz, and Victoria A. Alvarez.

The North Carolina Pro Bono Resource Center assists lawyers in finding volunteer opportunities and resources to provide pro bono legal services. The organization connects attorneys to trainings and materials and has partnered with the Supreme Court of North Carolina to recognize attorneys who dedicate substantial time to performing pro bono services.

Each year, Troutman Pepper attorneys dedicate thousands of pro bono hours in support of nonprofits, immigrants, military veterans, children, the wrongfully accused, and so many more. Learn more at troutman.com/pro-bono.
