CHARLOTTE/RALEIGH, N.C. – A distinguished group of Troutman Pepper attorneys has been named to the 2023 North Carolina Attorney Pro Bono Honor Society by the North Carolina Pro Bono Resource Center (PBRC). The honor society acknowledges attorneys who have demonstrated outstanding commitment to legal service by providing 50 or more hours of pro bono contributions within the state of North Carolina.

Troutman Pepper attorneys recognized are Elizabeth Holt Andrews, Jacquelyn Arnold, Adrian Boddie, G. Lee Cory, Holly Ingram, Edward Nogay, Michael Peretz, Cassidy Webb, and Anais Jaccard.

The North Carolina PBRC is dedicated to fostering and promoting pro bono legal services across the state. With a deep commitment to bridging the justice gap, it connects attorneys, law firms, and legal organizations with meaningful pro bono opportunities that address critical legal needs in underserved communities. The organization has partnered with the Supreme Court of North Carolina to recognize attorneys who dedicate substantial and impactful time to pro bono services.

Each year, Troutman Pepper attorneys dedicate thousands of pro bono hours in support of nonprofits, immigrants, military veterans, children, the wrongfully convicted, civil rights and social justice initiatives, and so many more. Learn more at troutman.com/pro-bono.
