CANNABIS REGULATORY UPDATES

MISSOURI GOVERNOR'S EFFORTS TO BAN UNREGULATED PSYCHOACTIVE CANNABIS PRODUCTS MEETS RESISTANCE

By Jean Smith-Gonnell, Jeff Johnson, and Nick Ramos

On August 1, Missouri Governor Michael Parson issued Executive Order 24-10 (the EO), a bold move aimed at addressing consumer safety concerns surrounding unregulated psychoactive cannabis products. The EO sparked a legal battle with the Missouri Hemp Trade Association (MO Hemp), which claims that by designating these products as adulterated and imposing an embargo under the EO, the Missouri Department of Health and Senior Services (DHSS) violated Missouri law. The governor's action is yet another example of a state taking aggressive steps to address gaps left by the lack of federal regulations to ensure consumer safety in the burgeoning industrial hemp industry.
