NEW YORK – Troutman Pepper eMerge, the national law firm's legal technology and eDiscovery affiliate, celebrates its 10th anniversary this month. The firm subsidiary has grown from a small start-up to an integral part of Troutman Pepper's client legal strategy.

"Our firm was an early investor in eDiscovery, and that foundation has allowed us to expand beyond traditional eDiscovery and provide clients with legal and technical solutions for contracts analytics, litigation readiness and response, subpoena response, data remediation, breach response, and more," said Partner Alison Grounds, founder and managing director of eMerge. "We are looking forward to celebrating our 10th anniversary this month with our talented team and clients."

Troutman Pepper eMerge now offers clients more than 85 dedicated professionals – including discovery counsel, attorney case managers and technologists – who work collaboratively to provide legal advocacy and matter-specific and customized solutions for the management of electronically stored information (ESI) in legal matters.

"The next decade promises to present more novel challenges for businesses and eMerge will continue to be at the forefront of helping to solve them through legal technology and innovation. We are looking forward to the next 10 years," said Chris Haley, eMerge co-founder and director of legal technology.

Founded in 2012, Troutman Pepper eMerge combines legal strategy with advanced technology for the management of ESI in legal matters including litigation and internal and governmental investigations. Several leading industry authorities, including Chambers USA, have recognized Troutman Pepper eMerge with awards and accolades. Learn more at troutmanemerge.com.
