ATLANTA – Troutman Pepper eMerge has been recognized among the top three national e-discovery providers in the Daily Report's “2021 Best of” report. Each year, the publication surveys the Georgia Legal community on the best products and services for their legal practice.

Troutman Pepper eMerge also landed in the Daily Report Best of 2021 Hall of Fame, which showcases members that have repeatedly received the highest rankings from Daily Report readers and have been recognized for at least three of the last four years.

“We are proud to be recognized among this list of top service providers,” says Partner Alison Grounds, the founder of Troutman Pepper eMerge. “Our consistent inclusion is a testament to the value we have been able to deliver for our clients.”

Troutman Pepper eMerge has recently expanded its team with additional attorneys and technologists who work collaboratively to provide matter-specific and customized solutions for the management of electronically stored information (ESI) in legal matters to meet the increasing demand for these services.

“While we continue to grow, we remain committed to our core values which are headlined by our focus on clients and include our dedication to providing measurable value, to leveraging technology and to collaboration, communication and accountability,” Grounds said.

The Daily Report's annual “Best of” report was created to identify top legal products and service providers. The survey has recognized eMerge each year since it was established in 2010, consistently ranking it in the top spots for eDiscovery companies and providers.
