The joining of Protos and Mulligan creates one of the largest security firms in the U.S. and will enable Protos to provide greater program flexibility and high-quality services to its clients.

A multi-disciplinary team of Troutman Pepper attorneys, led by partners Nicholas Stawasz and Matt Greenberg, assisted Southfield Capital and Protos in the acquisition of Mulligan. Additional team members included associates Taylor Bartholomew, Jennifer Lang and Ravenna Neville, among others.

Southfield Capital is a private equity firm that invests in high-growth, lower middle market companies in the outsourced business services sector. The firm targets companies with $4-12 million in EBITDA and partners with management to scale the business through a combination of organic and acquisition growth strategies.

Consistently recognized as a top-tier national practice, Troutman Pepper's corporate attorneys regularly handle multimillion- and multibillion-dollar transactions. Core areas of service include capital markets transactions and other significant domestic and cross-border transactions, mergers and acquisitions, corporate governance, securities laws compliance, and corporate finance. The firm has particular expertise in the private equity and private fund services space, advising clients on matters from fund formation to investments and exit transactions.
