The Troutman Pepper Financial Services blog launched today with comprehensive analysis and insight into pertinent law, regulation, and business, and brings together thought leadership and news spanning the entirety of the financial services industry. Topics covered span consumer and bank regulatory, compliance and enforcement, litigation, consumer and commercial lending, M&A, capital raising and private equity, payments and fintech, banking as a service, the Bank Secrecy Act and anti-money laundering, bankruptcy, data security and privacy, strategic government relations issues, and more.

The Troutman Pepper Financial Services blog also is available on a new “Troutman Pepper” mobile app, together with the firm’s popular podcasts covering financial services issues and a directory of lawyers who serve the financial services industry. The mobile app is available on both iOS and Android platforms.

The launch of the blog and mobile app come as Troutman Pepper has assembled a team of more than 200 attorneys who regularly advise financial services providers, including banks, neobanks, payment processors, card issuers, consumer reporting agencies, and consumer and commercial lenders. Troutman Pepper handles their full spectrum of legal needs and has been nationally recognized for its work in the financial services industry, including by Chambers and Partners, U.S. News – Best Lawyers®, and Law360, among others.
