NEW YORK – Troutman Pepper Locke advised Hudson Glade, a private investment firm focused on consumer, industrial, and services companies at the lower end of the middle market, in its second platform investment with the acquisition of ComNet Communications. For more information, see the press release.

ComNet Communications provides low-voltage infrastructure solutions nationwide, including structured cabling, audiovisual, and security systems. Through the acquisition, Hudson Glade aims to enhance ComNet Communications' presence in the growing data center market, deepen its existing customer relationships through adjacent services, invest in its already strong sales organization, and pursue strategic acquisitions.
