BOSTON – Troutman Pepper Locke advised Osisko Development Corp., a continental North American gold development company focused on past-producing mining camps located in mining-friendly jurisdictions with district scale potential, in the closing of its $203 million private placement of units, and its $450 million credit facility with Appian Capital Advisory Limited, a UK-based private equity firm specializing in mid-market investments in metals and mining. For more information, see the press release.

Osisko Development will use the combined proceeds from these transactions to fund the construction of its Cariboo gold project.
