SUIT AGAINST CANNABIS GIANT TRULIEVE UNDERSCORES CASHLESS ATM RISKS AND THE NEED FOR BANKING REFORMS

By Jean Smith-Gonnell and Michael Jordan

In a February 19 complaint filed in Arizona state court, Texas-based payment processor Switch Commerce LLC argued that multistate cannabis operator Trulieve Cannabis Corp. and its affiliates should be responsible for a $950,000 fine from Visa for their alleged fraudulent use of "cashless ATMs" — not Switch.
