ATLANTA – Troutman Pepper Locke advised Atlanticus Holdings Corporation (Atlanticus) in its acquisition of Mercury Financial LLC (Mercury), a leading data- and tech-centric credit card platform utilized by bank partners to provide credit cards to near-prime consumers in the U.S. For more information, see the press release.

Atlanticus™ technology enables bank, retail, and health care partners to offer more inclusive financial services to everyday Americans through the use of proprietary technology and analytics. The acquisition of Mercury adds an established top 25 credit card program to the suite of programs that Atlanticus manages on behalf of bank partners. As a result of the transaction, Atlanticus added 1.3 million credit card accounts serviced and $3.2 billion in credit card receivables, bringing its total serviced accounts to more than five million and its total managed receivables to more than $6 billion.
