Firm Climbs International Rankings, Sustains Market-Leading Position in U.S. League Tables

NEW YORK – Troutman Pepper Locke continues to demonstrate transactional strength in the latest global and U.S. industry league table rankings released by LSEG (formerly Refinitiv) and Bloomberg. The firm notably maintained top rankings in international industry league tables and sustained a strong position in the Americas, ranking No. 1 in Bloomberg’s U.S. High Yield Corporate Bonds: Legal Adviser – Manager Ranked by Deal Count category.

“Quarter over quarter, we have strengthened our position as a transactional powerhouse across capital markets and M&A, advancing in industry league tables in the U.S. and internationally. Our growth is driven by the team’s depth and agility across a full spectrum of transactions,” said Mason Bayler, chair of Troutman Pepper Locke’s Transactional Department. “This momentum reflects our focus on execution and market insight that help clients navigate complexity and close with confidence.”

The firm ranked in 23 league tables in Bloomberg and 13 of LSEG’s capital markets and M&A league tables. A sampling of the firm’s rankings is included below.

“We are grateful for the recognition we continue to earn in leading league tables, and we remain firmly committed to delivering exceptional service, innovative solutions, and measurable outcomes for our clients in an increasingly dynamic market,” added David Ghegan, leader of Troutman Pepper Locke’s Corporate Practice.
