NEW YORK – Troutman Pepper Locke’s capital markets team continues to make significant strides on the international stage, earning top-tier recognition in the Q1 2026 global and Canada-focused capital markets league tables from Bloomberg and LSEG. The firm achieved standout rankings across global equity and bond categories, as well as multiple Canadian equity and equity-linked tables, underscoring its growing strength and reputation in cross-border capital markets transactions.

“Our performance is a powerful validation of the investments we’ve made in building a global capital markets platform,” said Dave Meyers, partner and leader of Troutman Pepper Locke’s corporate public companies team within the Corporate Practice Group. “It reflects the depth of our bench, the complexity of the matters we handle, and our continued commitment to helping issuers, managers, and underwriters achieve their strategic goals worldwide.”

“Being ranked once again among the top firms is especially meaningful,” added partner Tom Rose. “Our placement in the top 10 across virtually all of the Canadian league table categories further highlights the consistency and quality of our work, as well as the confidence our clients place in us as we continue to support them in sophisticated cross-border transactions.”
