WASHINGTON, D.C. – Dameon Rivers, partner in Troutman Pepper Locke's Multifamily Housing Finance Practice Group, has been honored with the 2025 Lawyers in Real Estate Award from Connect CRE for his practice excellence and contributions to his local community. He is among only 10 attorneys in the D.C. area to be profiled by the organization.

Rivers focuses his practice on balance-sheet, Fannie Mae, and Freddie Mac financings for multifamily and charter school projects, including affordable housing developments benefited by 4% or 9% Low Income Housing Tax Credits. He is a member of a national team of attorneys and dedicated real estate professionals who provide end-to-end guidance and management for thousands of transactions originated by mortgage lending clients every year. Rivers has significant experience with the full range of agency loan products and regularly represents lenders of Fannie Mae's Delegated Underwriting and Servicing product line and Freddie Mac's Capital Markets Execution program.

Troutman Pepper Locke's Multifamily Housing Finance practice is known for its industry-leading knowledge and experience. Clients rely on the team to utilize the experience garnered from thousands of closings to offer fresh insight and creative problem-solving to their most difficult transactions. The team's approach to efficiency and process management has helped it become widely known as the top legal team for multifamily finance in the U.S.

Now in its sixth consecutive year, Connect CRE's Lawyers in Real Estate Awards spotlight real estate attorneys who have made an impact through both their practice in real estate-related matters and the contributions they have made as members of the industry.
