PHILADELPHIA – Troutman Pepper Locke partner Jeremy Heep has been appointed global chair of the Litigation, Arbitration and Dispute Resolution Group at Lex Mundi, one of the world's leading networks of independent law firms.

In this role, Heep will help coordinate cross-border collaboration among litigators, arbitration practitioners, and dispute resolution lawyers across Lex Mundi's premier member firms, supporting clients involved in complex, multijurisdictional disputes and proceedings. He will lead knowledge-sharing and training initiatives, including programming on evolving dispute resolution strategies, cross-border enforcement and judgment recognition, and innovations in international arbitration and mediation. Heep will also work to enhance client service by developing innovative approaches and resources for companies navigating high-stakes commercial, regulatory, and investor-state disputes worldwide.

At Troutman Pepper Locke, Heep's practice focuses on helping corporate clients resolve matters through international arbitration, cross-border litigation, antitrust, and commercial litigation. He represents domestic and international clients through all stages of complex commercial disputes in U.S. courts, with particular emphasis on antitrust and international issues.
