PHILADELPHIA – Troutman Pepper Locke advised OrthoFundamentals, LLC, a pioneering, U.S.-based company with innovative implants and sterile-packed, single-use instrument kits for SI Joint Fusion, in its sale to Demetra, an innovative and independent international medical company and leader in providing bone cements, spacers, and biomaterials for orthopedic applications and PJI infection control. For more information, see the press release.

This move represents a bold step in Demetra's strategy to revolutionize spinal care through innovation, sustainability, and clinical effectiveness. With the United States being one of the most dynamic, technologically advanced, and high-potential health care markets, the establishment of the U.S.-based division consolidates Demetra's commitment to expanding its footprint in North America while laying the groundwork for progressive international growth.
