STATE AG NEWS

New Jersey Governor-Elect Sherrill Nominates Jennifer Davenport as New Jersey AG

By Troutman Pepper Locke State Attorneys General Team

On Monday, New Jersey Governor-elect Mikie Sherrill announced that she will nominate Jennifer Davenport to serve as the next attorney general (AG) of New Jersey. Davenport, a lifelong New Jersey resident, is currently employed at PSEG, where she serves as deputy general counsel and chief litigation counsel and previously served as senior director – compliance. Her nomination signals a continuation of strong enforcement and regulatory focus, informed by both extensive public-sector experience and recent private-sector roles.

State Enforcement in the Wake of Trump Executive Order Targeting State Regulation of AI

By Troutman Pepper Locke State Attorneys General Team

On December 11, President Donald Trump signed an executive order (EO) that establishes a national artificial intelligence (AI) regulatory framework and attempts to preempt enforcement of state AI laws. Titled “Ensuring a National Policy Framework for Artificial Intelligence,” the EO states that “[i]t is the policy of the United States to sustain and enhance the United States’ global AI dominance through a minimally burdensome national policy framework for AI.” This latest effort follows bipartisan opposition in Congress and among state attorneys general (AGs) to previous legislative attempts this year to supersede state AI laws. While the order seeks to minimize a burdensome AI regulatory patchwork, compliance will remain complex given various state enforcement tools.

AG OF THE WEEK

Gentner Drummond, Oklahoma

Gentner Drummond was sworn in as Oklahoma’s 19th attorney general on January 9, 2023. His legal career spans nearly 30 years, including service as an assistant district attorney in Pawnee and Osage counties and as an attorney in private practice. In 1999, he founded the Tulsa-based firm, Drummond Law. Drummond, a seventh-generation Oklahoman, also has experience as a rancher, banker, and businessman.

A U.S. Air Force jet pilot during the Persian Gulf War, Drummond led the first combat mission of the conflict and earned several commendations, including the Distinguished Flying Cross, three Air Medals, and four Aerial Achievement Medals.

Since taking office, Drummond has focused on fighting crime, government transparency, improving tribal relations, combating corruption, and protecting Oklahoma from federal overreach. He assembled the first-ever Organized Crime Task Force to address illegal marijuana operations and related criminal activities, such as human trafficking and opioid distribution.

Drummond earned his bachelor's degree from Oklahoma State University and his law degree from Georgetown University.

In January 2025, Drummond formally announced his candidacy for governor in the 2026 election, returning to his roots in northeastern Oklahoma for the announcement.
