Bipartisan AG Coalition Opposes FCC Action to Preempt State and Local AI Laws

By Troutman Pepper Locke State Attorneys General Team

In a pair of recent submissions to the Federal Communications Commission (FCC), a bipartisan coalition including more than 20 state attorneys general (AG) opposed action by the FCC to preempt state and local laws relating to artificial intelligence (AI). The coalition's comments reflect persistent concerns among AGs about how businesses use AI when interacting with their residents, even as some federal policymakers support limiting states' ability to address those concerns.

AG OF THE WEEK

Brenna Bird, Iowa

Attorney General (AG) Brenna Bird was elected in November 2022 and assumed office in January 2023. She is the first Republican to hold the position since 1979. Bird grew up on a farm near Dexter, IA, where she was homeschooled. She earned her bachelor's degree from Drake University and her J.D. from the University of Chicago Law School, where she served as symposium editor of the law journal.

Bird's legal career includes six years as a prosecutor, first as Fremont County attorney and then as Guthrie County attorney from 2018 to 2022. Her leadership was recognized by her peers, who elected her president of the Iowa County Attorney Association. She has also worked in private practice, served as legal counsel to Governor Terry Branstad, and held roles in the U.S. House of Representatives. Additionally, Bird has taught as an adjunct professor at the University of Iowa College of Law.

As AG, Bird has focused on public safety, supporting law enforcement, and advocating for victims of crime. She resides on her family farm in rural Dexter with her husband, Bob, an Iraq war veteran, and their son.

Iowa AG in the News:

- Bird has filed three lawsuits and is seeking contempt of court against contractors in four Iowa counties for allegedly conducting illegal excavations that violated the state's One Call law, emphasizing the requirement to contact Iowa One Call before digging to prevent damage and protect public safety.
- Bird announced that her Judicial Safety bill unanimously cleared an Iowa House subcommittee. The bill elevates threats against judicial officers or their families to a Class "C" felony with up to 10 years in prison, creates a serious misdemeanor for doxxing them, and authorizes professional carry permits for judges and AG's office attorneys.
