California Privacy Protection Agency Announces Multistate Sweep Targeting GPC Compliance

By Troutman Pepper Locke State Attorneys General Team, David Stauss, and Angelo A. Stio III

Key point: The investigative sweep is part of a growing multistate approach to privacy enforcement actions.

On September 9, the California Privacy Protection Agency (CPPA) announced that it has initiated a joint regulatory sweep in collaboration with attorneys general (AG) from California, Colorado, and Connecticut. The sweep will target businesses' compliance with legal requirements associated with recognition of opt-out preference signals (OOPS) and universal opt-out mechanisms (UOOMs) that consumers can use to exercise their right to opt out of online tracking technologies (i.e., targeted advertising, sales, or sharing).

AG OF THE WEEK

Raúl Labrador, Idaho

Raúl Labrador serves as Idaho's 33rd attorney general (AG), focusing on serving the people of Idaho and promoting government accountability. Labrador began his public service career in 2006 when he was elected to the Idaho Legislature, serving for four years. In 2010, he was elected to the U.S. House of Representatives, representing Idaho for eight years. During his time in Congress, Labrador chaired the House Judiciary Subcommittee on Immigration and Border Security and was a member of the House Committee on Natural Resources for eight years, contributing to legislative discussions on immigration, border security, and resource management.

Labrador holds a bachelor's degree from Brigham Young University in Utah and a law degree from the University of Washington School of Law in Seattle. After law school, he clerked for the U.S. District Court for the District of Idaho. Prior to his congressional service, Labrador founded and managed a law firm with offices in Boise and Nampa, focusing on immigration and criminal law.

As AG, Labrador continues to emphasize transparency, legal integrity, and ensuring that Idaho's government remains accountable to its citizens. He works to provide legal guidance to state agencies and represents Idaho in legal matters at the state and federal levels.

Idaho AG in the News:

- Labrador announced the AG offices' legal victory in a wrongful termination lawsuit filed by a former employee.
- Labrador warned Idaho families about the danger of cryptocurrency ATM scams.
- Labrador joined the bipartisan coalition urging tech companies to stop the spread of nonconsensual intimate imagery.
