DALLAS – Isreal Miller, an attorney in Troutman Pepper Locke's Tax and Benefits Practice Group, has been named president of TXCPA Dallas, a chapter of the Texas Society of Certified Public Accountants. TXCPA Dallas' executive board members are elected from among the members and are responsible for governing the chapter.

Miller is board certified in tax law and estate planning and probate law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization, a CPA, Certified Financial Planner™ practitioner, and Personal Financial Specialist. Before going into private practice, he served for five years as a trial attorney for the Texas Comptroller of Public Accounts, where he handled more than 1,700 cases, including more than 850 cases litigated at the State Office of Administrative Hearings. Miller has extensive experience collaborating with taxpayers, taxpayer representatives, auditors, and other agency personnel to resolve disputed state tax issues and claims related to Texas franchise tax and sales and use tax. He also has experience handling unclaimed property claims and holder reports.

The Texas Society of CPAs is a trusted professional community of approximately 6,000 members in North Texas. The TXCPA Dallas chapter offers resources, education, and professional development to assist its members' career growth. Its members are highly trained strategic advisors and civic leaders who are respected in their communities.
