Donna Byrne, a partner with Troutman Pepper, was quoted in the Law360 article, “Troutman Pepper Nabs FERC Pro from Steptoe.”

“When the opportunity arose, I recognized that joining Troutman’s energy practice would offer me the chance to be a part of a team that shares my philosophy about excellence in client service and also provides a great platform for my particular skill set and my experience as an energy lawyer,” Byrne said.

“But beyond that, getting acquainted with my new colleagues is also a big priority for me because I believe it’s through those relationships that I’ll be able to ensure the clients I’m working directly with get the full benefit of the broad spectrum of expertise that Troutman Pepper has to offer,” Byrne said. “Getting to know those colleagues is a priority of mine as I move forward in the next couple of weeks.”

...

“So, with my background and experience that I’ve garnered over the years, I want to serve as a resource to support my colleagues when enforcement matters arise for their clients and to be there to partner with them and provide the benefit of my experience on the matters that their clients are facing,” Byrne said.
