ATLANTA – Troutman Pepper has been named among Law360's 2024 Regional Powerhouses in Georgia for its high-impact and high-profile work across the Peach State. The firm is among only five recognized in the category. Read Troutman Pepper's feature online here.

Troutman Pepper's Georgia-based attorneys had a standout year, from helping utilities navigate the challenges associated with increased energy demands throughout the state, to defeating high-stakes state constitutional challenges, to clearing the path for a $5 billion Rivian electric vehicle plant to drive forward.

"Troutman Pepper has a rich history in the state of Georgia and a legacy of service we are incredibly proud of," said Charlie Peeler, managing partner of Troutman Pepper's Atlanta office, the firm's largest by headcount with more than 200 lawyers. "This recognition is a testament to our enduring commitment to going above and beyond for both our clients and community."

"It's also a nod to the firm's ability to build and retain a deep bench across practice areas and key industries," said Justice Harold Melton. "We take a true team-based approach when serving clients here in Georgia and across the country."

The firm's Georgia-based attorneys provide national and international counsel to Fortune 500, middle market, and emerging companies in all major areas of legal practice. Industries served span energy, media and entertainment, financial institutions, real estate, transportation, communications, and technology, as well as global manufacturing, retail, trade, and government, among other areas.

Attorneys and professional staff frequently volunteer time with civic, charitable, and cultural organizations across the state. The Pro Bono Partnership of Atlanta recognized Troutman Pepper as its 2023 Law Firm of the Year for the firm's contributions of attorney time and counsel helping Atlanta-area nonprofits.

Over the past year, Troutman Pepper has been recognized nationally for its extraordinary client service. In April 2024, BTI Consulting ranked Troutman Pepper among the top 5 percent of all law firms for its "impressive client service delivery." The firm was recognized on the prestigious BTI Client Service 30 list, ranking No. 28, and earning the highest marks for "being easy to work with" and "including clients early in strategy discussions."

The firm's focus on innovation to improve client experiences also took center stage in the last year. The Financial Times recognized it among the top 25 most innovative law firms and, The Legal Intelligencer named it among the 2024 Law Firm Innovators for being among the first law firms to launch and fully adopt a bespoke generative AI tool, Athena.
