

Troutman Pepper Named Among Top Law Firms Most Feared in Litigation

NEW YORK – Troutman Pepper is among 62 law firms “most feared in litigation” according to The BTI Litigation Outlook 2024 report. The report provides insight into which law firms “top legal decision makers point to as the opponents they do not want to encounter.”

Firms were recognized for their ability to challenge convention and establish new rules, take on novel matters, operate confidently with limited known facts, be unrelenting, and link unconnected ideas leading to breakthroughs.

BTI is a leading provider of strategic research to the legal community. Its BTI Litigation Outlook report is based on 280 in-depth telephone interviews with top legal decision makers. No law firm or attorney influences the results, submits nominations, or provides client names to BTI.

Troutman Pepper is nationally recognized for its work defending and prosecuting high-stakes commercial matters in federal, state, trial, and appellate courts throughout the country. Attorneys are experienced in litigating complex multidistrict cases, class actions, and single-case litigations and represent a diverse array of clients from mid-market companies to Fortune 500 leaders.
