NEW YORK – Troutman Pepper has been recognized among Construction Executive's list of The Top 50 Construction Law Firms™ for 2022, earning the No. 2 spot.

To determine its rankings, Construction Executive surveyed more than 600 U.S. construction law firms and used an algorithm to weigh the data. Information collected included construction practice revenue, number of attorneys, year established, total clients served in 2021, and geographic reach, among other criteria.

“We are proud to again be recognized among the top law firms serving clients in the construction space,” said Mike Subak, who leads the firm’s Construction Practice Group. “While the recognition is always nice, what really motivates us is the rewarding and challenging work we do for our clients.”

In January, Troutman Pepper’s Construction Practice Group was recognized by Law360 as a 2021 Construction Practice Group of the Year for its standout dealmaking and litigation wins. More recently, the practice retained its top nationwide construction ranking in Chambers USA 2022 – national recognition it has held since 2019. Notably, the team was recognized as Construction Law Firm of the Year at the 2018 Chambers USA Awards. The firm is also ranked Tier 1 by U.S. News & World Report – Best Law Firms in both the Construction Law and Litigation – Construction categories.

Troutman Pepper counsels clients on some of the largest, most sophisticated construction projects in the world. The firm is also a leader in the total number of complex disputes tried and won in federal and state courts nationwide and arbitration forums domestic and international.
