RICHMOND, Va. – Dave Meyers, a partner in Troutman Pepper's Corporate Practice Group, has been named to the Virginia Law Foundation's 2024 Class of Fellows.

Nominated confidentially by their peers, fellows are recognized for leadership in their practices, their communities, and the Commonwealth. The Class of 2024 joins a group of more than 775 of the best and brightest legal practitioners in Virginia who are committed to the highest ideals of the law and exemplify the concept of citizen lawyer.

Focusing his practice on corporate governance, Meyers serves as a valued advisor for public companies, helping them break down barriers and implement strategies that achieve financial and business success. His technical knowledge and collaborative approach help clients achieve their commercial goals and position themselves for long-term growth. Meyers' many years of experience enable him to strategically guide business decisions that are critical to clients' growth strategies.

Consistently recognized as a top-tier national practice, Troutman Pepper's corporate attorneys regularly handle multimillion- and multibillion-dollar transactions. Core areas of service include capital markets transactions and other significant domestic and cross-border transactions, mergers and acquisitions, corporate governance, securities laws compliance, and corporate finance. The firm has particular expertise in the private equity and private fund services space, advising clients on matters from fund formation to investments and exit transactions.

Meyers, along with the rest of the 2024 class, was inducted into the Fellows of the Virginia Law Foundation in a ceremony held on January 18th.
