Kim Phan

For Troutman Pepper partner Kim Phan, connecting with others has been crucial to her success, providing a support system as she advanced in her legal career.

As the new president of the National Conference of Vietnamese American Attorneys, Phan is working to help others network and find community. A Washington, D.C.-based privacy and data security attorney, she was sworn in as the 2023-2024 leader of the organization last week at its annual conference, which was in Seattle this year.
