ATLANTA – Troutman Pepper Partners Steve Lewis and Chuck Palmer are among Atlanta's most powerful leaders, according to the 2024 Atlanta 500 published by Atlanta Magazine. Lewis, who most recently served as firmwide chair, was recognized in the publication's Legends section and Palmer, who most recently served as Atlanta office managing partner, was highlighted in its Professionals section.

Lewis is an accomplished corporate practitioner who is known in and beyond Atlanta for his leadership of Troutman Pepper, helming the national law firm through numerous milestones including the largest merger in its 125+ year history. His clients trust him to help navigate critical business issues and to evaluate and execute strategic transactions such as mergers and acquisitions and joint ventures. He serves as outside general counsel to several closely held companies and is particularly experienced in advising family owned businesses.

Palmer has built a reputation for being a skilled advocate and a positive leader in Atlanta's business community. He has advised clients in a range of industries, helping them navigate their interactions with government. His deep experience and long-term relationships inform a perspective focused on helping clients achieve their goals while also being mindful of the community interests and public policies associated with those goals.

The 2024 Atlanta 500 is “an anthology of the power that resides in Atlanta” with honorees selected by the publication’s editorial team. View the full list of the city’s most powerful leaders online here.
