PORTLAND – Adrienne Thompson, a partner in Troutman Pepper's Energy Practice Group, has been named to Portland Business Journal's 40 Under 40 Class of 2023. The awards recognize young executives that are making a substantial impact on their industries and communities.

Thompson provides regulatory and transactional advice to clients involved in the generation, marketing, and transmission of electric energy. Her practice focuses particularly on administrative issues before the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (FERC), especially as they concern the Federal Power Act and the Public Utility Regulatory Policies Act of 1978 (PURPA).

Troutman Pepper has a team of more than 150 lawyers who have the capabilities and experience to help clients across the energy industry with their most important and complex matters throughout the United States. From renewables to conventional and emerging technologies, the cross-disciplinary team has extensive experience across the energy landscape. The firm regularly advises independent power producers, banks, utilities, private equity funds, and large corporations. Learn more at energylawinsights.com.

The Portland Business Journal will feature all 40 Under 40 honorees in a special publication and will recognize the 2023 class at an awards ceremony on July 13.
