NEW YORK – Troutman Pepper has achieved top rankings in the latest industry league table rankings released by LSEG (formerly Refinitiv) and Bloomberg, notably ranking first in Bloomberg's US Equity Linked: Legal Adviser – Issuer Ranked by Volume category.

"Troutman Pepper is proud of our performance in the most recent M&A league tables, particularly as market activity improves," said Mason Bayler, chair of Troutman Pepper's Transactional Department. "These rankings highlight our significant growth in the U.S. domestic M&A deal space, as well as our #1 ranking in the U.S. domestic capital markets, and our strong presence in foreign M&A and capital markets deals. This success is achieved thanks to our strong U.S. platform and strategic partnerships with leading law firms around the world that enable us to serve clients globally and across a variety of industries."

"As predicted earlier in the year, we are seeing a rebound in dealmaking across sectors and markets," added Matt Greenberg, who leads Troutman Pepper's Corporate Practice. "Our team continues to guide clients through this dynamic environment, leveraging our in-depth commercial and industry experience to navigate the complexities of capital markets and M&A activities. We remain committed to providing precise, strategic guidance to help our clients achieve their objectives, whether they are industry-leading Fortune 100 corporations or emerging companies."
