MONITORSHIPS – A RESOURCE FOR AGS AND REGULATED BUSINESSES ALIKE

By Abbey Thornhill and Troutman Pepper State Attorneys General Team

Recently, a matter involving North Carolina Attorney General (AG) Josh Stein made headlines when it was announced that Affiliated Monitors Inc. would take over monitorship of HCA Healthcare. This relates to HCA's compliance with the conditions set forth in an asset purchase agreement involving six North Carolina hospitals it acquired when it purchased Misson Health System in 2019 for $1.5 billion.^[1] In addition to approving the asset purchase agreement, Stein sued HCA in a separate matter at the end of 2023 based on allegations of mismanagement, including inadequate staffing and lack of sterile equipment among other cost-cutting measures. While HCA is seeking dismissal of the lawsuit, in the asset purchase matter, both HCA and Stein consented to the use of a monitor, as well as this change. Stein stated, “[a] strong, independent and transparent monitor will go a long way in ensuring that HCA upholds its commitments” and “ensur[ing] that the people of western North Carolina have access to high-quality health care.”
