NEW YORK – For the tenth consecutive year, Troutman Pepper has been ranked among the top US-based Law firms for its Canadian Capital Markets Deals. This according to the latest league table ranks by Refinitiv, a data analytics provider.

“Our Canadian Practice Group has once again demonstrated its consistent strong performance, concluding the year with a robust fourth quarter,” stated Partner Tom Rose. “While our position in the league tables is noteworthy, what truly defines our success is the complexity of the deals we complete and the significant work we do for our clients on a daily basis.”

Notably, the firm's Canadian Practice Group has achieved top rankings in the United States. It landed in the No. 1 US-based law firm spot as a legal advisor for issuers, and the No. 2 US-based law firm spot as a legal advisor for managers, specifically for Canada equity and equity-related deals.
