PHILADELPHIA – Christopher Brolley, an associate in Troutman Pepper's Health Sciences Department, is one of 22 attorneys nationwide selected for the 2023-2024 American Bar Association Tort Trial and Insurance Practice (TIPS) Leadership Academy.

The ABA TIPS Section unites plaintiff, defense, insurance and corporate counsel to advance the civil justice system. TIPS is a national source of expertise in tort, trial and insurance practice and brings lawyers together to share information and speak out on issues of importance. The section has over 11,000 members and more than 30 general committees that focus on substantive and procedural matters in areas across the broad spectrum of civil law and practice.

Brolley concentrates his practice on federal and statewide product liability litigation through his representation of pharmaceutical and medical device companies. He also advises colleges and universities of all sizes on Name, Image, and Likeness (NIL), particularly regarding compliance with state NIL laws, NCAA Bylaws, and other NCAA policies and guidance concerning permissible and impermissible NIL activities.

Additionally, Brolley maintains an active pro bono practice, representing veterans applying for benefits from the Department of Veterans Affairs. His work primarily focuses on appealing before The Board of Veterans' Appeals and working closely with the National Veterans Legal Services Program.

Troutman Pepper's leading life sciences and health care practice counsels clients at all stages of the health care continuum – from drug development to clinical care – from emerging biotech to global pharma. The firm takes an integrated, interdisciplinary approach to counsel clients' complex, evolving needs, providing critical support including intellectual property prosecution and litigation, corporate finance and governance, privacy and cybersecurity, litigation, regulatory, and enforcement.
