PHILADELPHIA/ATLANTA – Troutman Pepper's Hiring to Firing Podcast has been named a finalist for the prestigious PRNEWS Platinum Award in the Digital & Social Media – Podcast category. This recognition underscores the podcast's innovative approach to exploring key labor and employment issues through the lens of popular culture. Winners will be announced at an October awards event.

Launched in May 2022, Hiring to Firing is hosted by Partners Tracey Diamond and Evan Gibbs. The podcast delves into a variety of common and not-so-common issues facing employers and employees, leveraging references from popular shows like "Emily in Paris," "Moneyball," "Squid Game," and "Severance" to make complex legal topics accessible and engaging.

"We are honored to be recognized as a finalist for a PRNEWS Platinum Award," Diamond said. "Our goal always has been to provide valuable insights in an entertaining format, and this nomination validates our efforts."

Gibbs added, "Having written on the intersection of popular culture and the law for many years, it's been incredibly rewarding to bring these discussions to life with Tracey and our esteemed guests. This recognition from PRNEWS is a testament to the hard work and creativity of our entire team."

The PRNEWS Platinum Awards have been celebrated for over two decades as the pinnacle of achievement in the communications industry. Winners are recognized for their exceptional innovation and industry knowledge, representing the best of the best in the field.
